

URANA PERSONALIA

Mrs. Eyles, who has been a patient in the McCaughey Memorial Hospital, Urana, is reported to be progressing satisfactorily.

Mr. Jack Barrett is home again after spending holidays amongst his old friends at Coolamon. He also paid a visit to Sydney.

Miss E. Partridge (an intimate acquaintance of the late Mrs. J. D. Plunkett, nee Sister M. Smith) has concluded a visit to Urana, Cullivel and Lockhart friends.

Mrs. R. Dodds and Mrs. Sheather, snr., are home from hospital. Patients in the local hospital speak highly of the treatment they receive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cookson paid a brief visit to Lockhart this week.

Condolence is expressed with Mrs. J. Eyles, who recently received the sad news of the death of her only brother, Mr. Niblick, of Shepparton (V.).

Mr. J. Sparkes is now relieving postmaster at Howlong.

Mrs. Jas. Henderson, who is staying with Sydney relatives, is reported to be regaining her health.

Mr. Norman Willey is spending part of his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Willey, of Cullivel.

Mr. Surrey Johnstone, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Urana hospital, is reported to be making a good recovery.

Mrs. Bruce Hope is home again after her minor accident.

Mr. Ron Rees is only one of several district people suffering from influenza.